Yesterday, October 27th, the Sisters of Providence celebrated the 100th anniversary of the establishment of the Holy Angels Province in Western Canada. Although the Sisters have been in western Canada since 1886, they officially became known as Holy Angels Province 100 years ago this year. There was a Mass at 10:30 A.M. followed by a lunch in the auditorium and displays. And the museum was open for viewing. There were about 300 people for the lunch and more people at the Mass with Archbishop Richard Smith. A very nice celebration.
