Today is All Souls Day and in November we remember the souls in purgatory in a special way with prayers and masses for them. Many people today think there is no devil and no hell and that they will go to heaven when they die. Pope Francis recently said that the devil is real and that we must fight him. Since we must be without sin to enter heaven, many people need to go to purgatory first to be cleaned of their sins and there they can't pray for themselves so we need to pray for them to lessen their time in purgatory. Hell is a place of suffering forever. See back of bulletin.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6th – 7:00 P.M. - Bible Study with Father Matthew.

Minute Meditations

Heavenly Father, how can I make Jesus the highest priority in my life so that I can take his message seriously and be one of his friends and disciples? I can start by opening my heart to your grace so I will be ready to rejoice to Jesus' call. I ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.
