SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME "C" – Today is the last Sunday before Lent. Wednesday, February 17th will be Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent. Lent continues for 40 days. During this time we are encouraged to do penance, make sacrifices, spend more time in prayer and doing good for others. This would also be a good time to pray for and donate money for the poor in Haiti. We have a roof over our heads, enough clothing, food and water. They don't.

TODAY, we continue to welcome FATHER MIKE MCCAFFERY our faithful priest. Thanks for being with us. We appreciate having you with us.

TODAY – After our 11:30 A.M. Mass today, we will have a combined Valentine and Family Day Party and Potluck Lunch in the PRC Auditorium. Come and join us. Everyone is welcome.

REMINDER: Ash Wednesday is a day of fast and abstinence – that is one full meal and two smaller ones and NO meat. There is only one other day this is required and it's Good Friday.

Haiti – The Sisters of Providence are accepting donations for the rebuilding of Haiti. If you wish to donate you may give the money to Sister Elizabeth. She will give it to the person responsible. Haiti is 70% Catholic. God did not punish them but permitted this to happen as a warning to us and for us to pray for them and to perform works of mercy by helping them.

Do you want us to remember your birthday? Please give the dates to Sister Elizabeth. Many thanks!

Happy Valentine's Day & Happy Family Day!
