SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER "C" and DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Today's gospel happened on the Sunday after Easter. When the risen Jesus had appeared to the Apostles on Easter Sunday, the apostle Thomas was not with them. Thomas refused to believe that they had seen Jesus alive again until he saw Jesus and the mark of the nails with his own eyes. When Jesus appears again the following Sunday, Jesus tells Thomas to touch his wounds and put his hand in his side, Thomas says: "My Lord and My God". Jesus says "Blessed are those people who have not seen him but believe." That is us, isn't it?

TODAY, we warmly welcome the ZANUTTINI family who are here for the anniversary of the death of Eric Zanuttini. They are friends of Father Mike McCaffery and they have been here several times before. We are happy to have you all here.

TODAY, Sunday, April 11th - The Providence Associates will have a light luncheon for St. Mark's like they did during March for the last few years. We welcome them. Let us thank them for their kindness to us.

MAY HE REST IN PEACE - Let us pray for MEL KELLY, brother in law of Barbara Bjelke and husband of her deaf sister Pauline, who died on Wed. March 31st. He was 91 years old. There was a memorial service for him yesterday. May he rest in peace.

This is still Easter time and the Easter Season will continue until the feast of Pentecost Sunday on May 23rd.
