ASSUMPTION OF MARY – Today's special feast of Mary's assumption into heaven replaces the regular Sunday Mass. Mary, as Jesus' mother was conceived without sin and after her death, her body was taken up to heaven to be with her Son Jesus in his glory as we will be one day.

As usual welcome to our faithful priest, FATHER MIKE MCCAFFERY.
Thank you, Father for being with us.

NEWS:

- Yesterday, Sister Margarete St. John made her final vows as a Sister of Providence. Many members of her came from Eastern Canada for this special celebration. Archbishop Smith presided at the special Mass and Matthew served.
- Sister Elizabeth will be leaving tonight for a holiday with her family and they will celebrate her jubilee there since they were not able to come here for the Jubilee celebration on June 12th.
- Matthew will be leaving St, Theresa's Parish on August 26th to go to the new Seminary. We wish him a successful year. Let us continue to pray for him.
- Kent Shores is leaving tomorrow morning to attend a University in Texas. We wish him much success in his studies and future. John and Heather will be traveling with him. They will not be here next Sunday, August 22nd as they will be returning that night.
