On February 28th, we were six people at the noon Mass for Benedict XIV. Connie was sick so Father Matthew got the homily and other papers and was able to "interpret" for us. Many thanks, Father Matthew.

Benedict XVI is now being called "His holiness Benedict XVI, Pope Emeritus". He slept well and is now praying, listening to music and reading. Let us pray for the Cardinals who will be meeting together tomorrow in Rome. It is important to pray for the election of the new Pope and that the Cardinals may be guided by the Holy Spirit.

Wednesday, March 6th – Father Matthew will be available for confessions for the Deaf at St. Theresa's Parish from 9:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M. All the churches will have confessions on this day. It is an excellent way to prepare for Easter, the greatest feast of the Church Year.

Sunday, March 17th - St. Patrick's Day - The Providence Associates will have their annual luncheon for St. Mark's in #196. There is no need to bring any food on this day as everything will be provided by the Providence Associates.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR – May 24-26 – We will have a Weekend Retreat with a deaf priest, Father Paul Zirimenya from San Francisco, California. (He was born in Africa.) This retreat will take place in Room # 196 as the Providence Renewal Centre is all booked up for that whole weekend.
