Gospel: Luke 19:1-10

TODAY'S GOSPEL is one of Jesus' parables (stories to teach). This one is about a Pharisee and a tax collector who went to the temple to pray. The Pharisee's prayer was not really a prayer because he was just praising himself and telling God how good he was. But the tax collector understood that he was a sinner and he asked God to have mercy on him. Jesus said that it was the tax collector who went home at right with God and not the Pharisee. God does not like proud people but He gives his graces to the humble.

NEWS – On November 8th and 9th the ICDA Canadian Section will have a Board meeting here at Providence Centre. On Sunday, November 10th we will have a Potluck Lunch after Mass in the Dining Room upstairs in the PRC. The name on the door is "Father Lacombe" and on the second door is the number #288.

Please pray for Sister Elizabeth who will be on Retreat this week until Monday, November 4th. She is looking forward to the time of silence and prayer. She will not be at our Mass next Sun., Nov. 3rd.

REMINDER – Jean Procyk is in St. Joseph's Auxiliary Hospital, 10707 – 29 Avenue. She is in room #306 – on the second floor – Rosewood Gardens. Thank you to those who have already visited her.

WORD OF THE DAY

Your life ought to be one long prayer that God's Spirit may work through all your thinking and acting to bless your neighbors.
