In the temple in Jerusalem, Jesus found people buying and selling. Jesus was not happy and he over turned the tables of the money changers, etc.

Psalm # 137

Second Reading: Ephesians 2:4-10

Gospel: John 3:13-21

In today's gospel, Jesus arrives in Jerusalem to find people buying and selling animals in the temple. He was angry and made a cord to chase them out to the temple. He told them that his father's house was a house of prayer.

Next Sunday, March 15th – St. Patrick's Day Luncheon given to St. Mark's by the Providence Associates. No need to bring any food that day. The Providence Associates are a group of lay people who assist the Sisters of Providence in the works the Sisters do. One of the works of the Sisters of Providence is with the deaf.

STAY HUMBLE

No matter how successful you are, no matter how big your house, no matter how new your car or how big your bank balance is, your grave will still be the same size as everyone else's. So keep your feet firmly on the ground and stay humble.
