IN TODAY'S GOSPEL Jesus said that he is the Bread of Life. In last Sunday's gospel, Jesus fed the five thousand people with five loaves of bread and two fish. In today's gospel, He tells them not to look for food that perishes, but for food that endures for eternal life.

YESTERDAY, AUGUST 1st was JEAN PROCYK's 90th birthday. We had a special Mass for her in the chapel at St. Joseph Hospital. Then after that we had a nice BBQ Birthday Lunch for her. Jean's niece brought a birthday cake and ice-cream. Jean's sister and three nephews and another niece were there too as well as several deaf members of St. Mark's. It was nice that we could celebrate her 90th birthday that way. You are encouraged to stop and visit her when you can. The address of St. Joseph's Hospital is 10707 – 29 Avenue.

QUOTE FROM ST. ALPHONSE LIGOURI

It is not necessary to acquire (get) riches, nor to obtain dignities (get honors), nor to gain a great name (to become an important person). The only thing necessary is to love God.
