This is the holiest week of the year. It begins with Palm Sunday. On Holy Thursday, Jesus washes the feet of his apostles and then institutes the Holy Eucharist to remain with us. And on Good Friday, he was whipped, crowned with thorns, nailed to the cross and died out of love for us poor sinners. Thank you, Jesus.

MINUTE MEDITATION

Admitting Mistakes

When we goof up, we need to admit that we are wrong, express our sorrow (the sacrament of reconciliation is perfect for that), and ask for the grace to do better next time. God doesn't expect us to be perfect. He does expect us, however, to admit when we are wrong and ask for his help along the way.
